

English Human rights protection

International committee of human rights protection, NGO

- Organizing consultations and training - psychology, legal; forming groups of young women and women victims of violence for training, social supporting; help women who are at risk to be involved in trafficking.

2004 - 2007: In a close cooperation with Kiev Center of Social Help for Young People and International NGO “For the balance in society” “Public room” for women rights protection had opened. During this year more than 50 women includes victims of domestic violence and victims of trafficking – in - persons (TIP) have received help (psychological consultations, employment, advocacy and legal etc.).